Nancy is a partner in the firm, with over 25 years of sophisticated insurance coverage experience, focusing on complex coverage litigation. She has extensive experience advising and representing national and international insurers with regard to a wide range of complex primary and excess third-party liability claims.

Nancy provides guidance to insurers on various third-party coverage issues, including construction defect, long-tail and toxic tort, advertising injury, professional liability and emerging issues such as climate change and coal ash. She has litigated coverage disputes before federal and state courts in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, among others. Her background includes extensive trial and appellate court briefing, argument and motion practice in numerous federal and state courts. Her experience also includes litigating product liability actions and evaluating settlement claims in a global pharmaceutical class action, each of which was simultaneously the subject of separate coverage litigation.

Professional Experience

Nancy has been a partner at SBRS since 2012. Previously, Nancy was a member and of counsel at Cozen O'Connor from 2002-2011, where she practiced in the area of complex insurance coverage before continuing that practice from 2011-2012 at a well-respected Philadelphia-based regional insurance coverage firm. Prior to that, from 1989-2002, Nancy practiced in the areas of complex insurance coverage, products liability and commercial litigation at a well-respected Philadelphia-based national litigation boutique firm. She also worked as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Abraham J. Gafni, (retired) in the Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia County, from 1988-1989.

Education

Nancy earned her bachelor of science degree, with distinction, in Public Service (with an emphasis in Business) from the Pennsylvania State University, graduating from its University Scholars Program (which is a predecessor to Penn State's Schreyer Honors College). She earned her law degree from Georgetown University Law Center, cum laude, where she served as the Executive Editor of the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics, and participated in the consortium D.C. Law Students in Court clinical program. Earlier, she interned at the D.C. Corporation Counsel's Office.

Representative Matters

Constructural Dynamics, Inc. v. Liberty Mutual, Pennsylvania (2015) Successfully litigated, at the Pennsylvania trial and appellate levels, issues of first impression on Additional Insured, Contractual Liability Coverage, and indemnity issues, securing large subrogated rights verdict for liability insurer.

OneBeacon v. USI MidAtlantic Inc., Court of Common Pleas, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, No. 2009-41636 (obtained summary judgment in a noteworthy advertising injury case in which Pennsylvania joined the majority of jurisdictions that interpret “advertising” as requiring the widespread distribution of promotional material to the public at large, rather than one-to-one solicitations; affirmed by Pa. Super. Ct.)

Lexington v. Western Pa. Hospital, 423 F.3d 318 (3d Cir. 2005) (successfully upheld federal trial court victory for professional liability excess insurer, resulting in first known appellate decision to examine and enforce claims-made requirements in a follow-form excess policy)

Township of Hamilton v. Zurich Amer. Ins. Co., 2006 WL 2583250 (D.N.J. Sept. 5, 2006) (obtained summary judgment for an insurer in a coverage action in which the underlying claimant sought $3 million for water and mold damage to the town hall)

American Guar. & Liab. Ins. Co. v. Intel Corp., Superior Court of Delaware, New Castle County, C.A. No. 09C-01-170-JOH (obtained summary judgment for an insurer in an advertising injury coverage action in which the underlying case was described as potentially becoming one of the largest antitrust cases ever in the United States)

Federal-Mogul Products, Inc. v. AIG Cas. Co. et al., New Jersey Superior Court, Morris County, No. MRS-L-2535-06 (obtained dismissal against one competing claimant seeking asbestos bodily injury coverage, eliminating excess insurer client’s potential exposure to that claimant)

R.T. Vanderbilt Co. v. Hartford Acc. & Indem. Co., et al., Conn. Superior Court, Judicial District of Waterbury, Complex Litigation Dep’t, No. X02-UWYCV-07-5016321 (successfully defeated a disqualification motion filed solely for litigation strategy purposes)
