Patrick J. Healey is a partner at SBRS. He has extensive experience in commercial litigation, civil litigation area, having handled cases of medical malpractice, automobile and premises liability, municipal liability, civil rights, products liability, employment litigation, insurance coverage, ERISA, and employment law. Patrick has conducted cases from initial pleading to discovery phases, through trial and appeal. He has tried hundreds of arbitrations, dozens of cases to verdict as sole trial counsel, and has acted as co-counsel at trial on approximately 50 additional cases. Patrick has authored numerous appellate briefs and has also argued before the Pennsylvania Superior and Commonwealth Courts, and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. He has also practiced before the EEOC and Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.

Professional Experience

Prior to joining SBRS, Patrick was employed as staff counsel for two of the largest insurance companies in the country and was partner in a firm that represented one of the nation's largest hospitals. Patrick has a true appreciation of an insurance clientele's needs and assessment. He brings focus and efficiency that only such a background provides.
